

Daniel Bue RCC-ACS

My first supervision was done in 2000. Since 2008, I have been supervising practicum students at a local college, as well as providing supervision for new counsellors who are working to attain their RCC or RPC. I have also been providing supervision and mentoring for experienced counsellors who are looking for ongoing input into their counselling practices. To date, the supervision that has been provided totals over 2,400 hours.
