Kelly Archer

(pronouns: she/her/hers)

Kelly is a clinical counsellor with over 13 years of experience working in the social services field with children, youth and young adults within outreach, community, school, and clinical settings. Kelly has worked with a wide scope of clients, ranging in ages from 5 to 24 years old, who present with various mental health concerns from anxiety and depression to disordered eating, substance misuse, trauma, and identity exploration.

Kelly has provided clinical supervision to both masters level students as well as registered counsellors. She has over a decade of experience participating in multiple group consultation teams in various settings such as government, private and post-secondary. Kelly has received training in providing Standard, Trauma, and Eating Disorder focused Cognitive Behavior Therapy (CBT), Emotion-Focused Family Therapy (EFFT), Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT), and SPACE therapy (Supportive Parenting for Anxious Childhood Emotions). Kelly has also received training and supervision in utilizing Motivational Interviewing (MI) strategies.

Kelly is also a wife and mother of two energetic little girls. She currently works with Beacon Psychology in Port Moody and is offering both in person and virtual sessions.
