I completed my M.Ed. in Counselling Psychology at the University of Victoria in 1993. Since 1993 I have worked as a psychotherapist with Island Health Adult Short Term Assessment and Treatment (ASTAT) Program, and the Urgent Short Term Assessment and Treatment (USTAT) Program on a multidisciplinary team along with psychiatrists, psychologists, psychotherapists, psychiatric nurses and social workers. I have supervised master's level counselling students since 1995. My areas of experience include clinical assessment, psychotherapeutic treatment of high acuity clients, risk assessment, interpersonal psychotherapy, psychodynamic psychotherapy, and cognitive behavioural therapy.
