

Sacha Médiné RCC-ACS

Phone Number:

778-318-8084

Business City:

Vancouver

Website:

sachamedine.ca

Sacha Médiné (he/him) is a cisgender Black man of Haitian ancestry, and parent to two young children, who currently lives and works primarily on the unceded traditional territories of the x^wməθk^wəyəm (Musqueam Indian Band), Sḵw̓x̓wú7mesh (Squamish Nation), and səlilwətał (Tsleil-Waututh Nation).

Sacha has extensive experience supporting practitioners working in a range of roles and at all stages of their careers. He offers clinical supervision for individuals and teams informed by collaborative social justice oriented therapeutic modalities such as Narrative Therapy, Feminist Therapy, and Liberation Psychology.

He has a particular interest in helping practitioners seeking ways to more deeply integrate social justice principles into their practice, whether it be independent or within an agency.

Area of Supervision:

- Clinical Supervision
- Clinical Consultation
- Group Supervision
- Peer Supervision
- Peer Consultation

Type of Services

- Telephone
- Online/Remote
- In-Person

